

Department of Correction Employees Recognized for Their Years of State Service

Indianapolis, Indiana (August 19, 2008)--Governor Mitch Daniels recognized twenty-one Indiana Department of Correction (IDOC) employees who have completed thirty-five years of service or more to the State of Indiana.

“I am grateful for the hard work and dedication that each of the recognized staff have put forth throughout their careers,” said IDOC Commissioner Edwin G. Buss. “The commitment that each of them has shown to the State of Indiana and our Agency is inspiring. Each and every one serves as an example to us all.”
